

'The Secret's Out...'

Greenville, S.C., is the "Must Play" of the Southeast! With a mild climate and warm hospitality, we have the winning combination for spirited play. Greenville boasts impressive athletic venues, including the new 16-field MeSA Soccer Complex and Fluor Field at the West End, home to the Minor League Greenville Drive, a Boston RedSox affiliate. Fluor Field was honored with the title of "Ballpark of the Year" and is recognized nationally.

Take advantage of all there is to do in Greenville—performing arts, festivals, museums and more! The Blue Ridge Mountains provide a stunning backdrop to Greenville and offer a range of outdoor activities. The Swamp Rabbit Trail offers excellent biking paths through the heart of the city. When it's time to eat, Greenville restaurants serve some of the finest food you have ever tasted; when it's time to sleep, accommodations range from campsites to luxury hotel suites.

Downtown Greenville

The Greenville Convention & Visitors Bureau (CVB) can assist with arranging special rates for your sporting event. Custom links can be developed and featured on the CVB website to promote your event and provide easy access to lodging information, and can be e-mailed to coaches, parents, and teams. The CVB staff is happy to provide visitor information on attractions, restaurants, and activities in Greenville.

We have it all in Greenville, S.C., where good sports are always greeted with a rousing cheer. SE
